Jeb Dunnuck – January 2021

The 2018 Cabernet Sauvignon Beckstoffer Georges III Vineyard is another more than noteworthy wine in the lineup. Lots of classic Cabernet notes of darker currants, damp earth, chocolate, and tobacco notes give way to a full-bodied wine that has lots of richness and depth while staying nicely balanced and light on its feet. It builds nicely with time in the glass, and while not a true blockbuster, it shines for its classic character and overall balance. It's beautifully done and is going to evolve for 20-25 years. – JD
