This iconic site in Rutherford can produce mixed results (it's a big vineyard), yet the 2016 Cabernet Sauvignon Beckstoffer Georges III Vineyard from Sojourn is a killer bottle of wine. Revealing a deep ruby/plum hue as well as loads of crème de cassis, earthy spices, cedar, chocolate, and new leather, it has an old school, focused, almost Pauillac-like style, full-bodied richness, and a great finish. It's going to benefit from 4-5 years of bottle age and drink spectacularly well for 20-25 years. – JD
