2016 Cabernet Sauvignon Beckstoffer Las Piedras Vineyard

99 Points

Jeb Dunnuck – January 2020

There were two 2016s presented, both magical wines that are just about as good as it gets. The 2016 Cabernet Sauvignon Las Piedras Vineyard comes from a rocky site outside of St. Helena and is all Cabernet aged 23 months in new barrels. A monster bouquet of crème de cassis and black raspberry-driven fruits are mixed with notes of crushed violets, unsmoked tobacco, spring flowers, and crushed rocks. These all flow to a full-bodied wine that builds incrementally on the palate, with a deep, layered mid-palate, ultra-fine tannins, and the balance and purity that make this vintage so special. Drink this awesome Cabernet any time over the coming 20-25 years. – JD
