Jeb Dunnuck – December 2021

Another brilliant Cabernet from this vintage is the 2018 Cabernet Sauvignon NOMAD Beckstoffer Las Piedras Vineyard, and it's possibly the finest wine I've tasted from this estate. Revealing a vivid purple hue as well as fabulous aromatics of pure crème de cassis, chocolate, unsmoked tobacco, and cedar pencil, it hits the palate with full-bodied richness, a rare mix of power and finesse, polished tannins, and a great, great finish. Drink bottles any time over the coming two decades. Give it plenty of air if drinking any time soon. – JD
