2013 Cabernet Sauvignon Beckstoffer Missouri Hopper Vineyard

95+ Points

The Wine Advocate – October 2015

The 2013 Cabernet Sauvignon Missouri Hopper, which comes from another Oakville Beckstoffer Vineyard, is spectacular. Opaque purple in color, the wine offers up notes of white chocolate, blackberry and cassis, some subtle background oak, rich, foresty notes, a full-bodied, opulent texture, and terrific purity and overall harmony. It is young and tightly coiled, but this is a stunner that should evolve beautifully for 25-30 years.

Bigger than life Jean Hoefliger is the winemaking guru behind these wines. He has partnered with Rob McKay, and they obviously have access to some incredibly great vineyards in Napa in order to produce such world-class wines.

Three of the five wines I tasted came from 100% Beckstoffer-owned vineyards, and that generally means amazing materials.-RP
